

Rehab For Profits in Today's Market

Presented by Pete Youngs

Pete Youngs' expertise is teaching people how to rehabilitate properties for a fraction of the normal estimated cost. His knowledge and ability to get the highest quality results for the lowest possible price earned his companies such prestigious renovation contracts as the living quarters at the 1996 Atlanta Summer Games, Courtyard By Marriott Hotels, two different contracts within international communications giant MCI, Publix Distribution Center, and hundreds of single and multi-family homes nationwide.

Pete will share his contractor knowledge with investors and homeowners alike, teaching everyone how to put THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS into your own pocket.

Pete knows that buying discount properties insures a lower purchase price, and will teach you valuable contractor techniques to lower your fix up or maintenance costs by 50% or even 75%! You will literally add REAL DOLLARS to your net worth and equity position whether you own just one home or one hundred homes.

Pete's success and humor has launched him to featured speaker status at numerous national investment conferences. Pete's REHAB 101 package and his other courses continue to receive awards from various entrepreneurial organizations.

Pete is a successful investor; business owner, author, and lecturer dedicated to helping others to achieve their goals as investors and real estate entrepreneurs. He has a monthly column in Real Estate Success Magazine and Real Estate Investor Publication and is a participating supporter of Habitat for Humanity, Atlantareia, National REIA and other various groups.
